

Work on the new bowling alley is going on rapidly and is nearly finished, with a little planing and other small items left to do, and as soon as that is completed the fixtures for the pool room will be put together. Mr. Boeckman believes he can open up for business in about two weeks.

H. J. Olson the telephone man