The stockholders of the Binford Co-Operative company held their annual meeting in the First State bank building last Saturday. The officers for the ensuing year remain the same except that J. P. Vangen was elected treasurer in place of Anton Miller. The matter of letting the opera house was taken up but no change was made in the rule which was established at a previous meeting, which allows no dancing parties or traveling shows to take place in the building.

It is a great problem for a large
