

The firm of O. Almklov & Co. has been dissolved, Arthur Anderson purchasing the interests of his partner, O. Almklov, of Hannaford. The deal was closed last week. The people of Binford and neighboring country will be pleased to learn that "Andy" has become the sole proprietor of the drug store. It means that he will now be a permanent fixture here, and the drug store will continue to be kept in neat and first class condition and the high standard of pharmaceutical efficiency will be maintained. No town in the state can boast of a better drug store than Binford and we are all proud of that fact, and a great deal of credit for this should be given to Mr. Anderson. The drug store has enjoyed a splendid patronage under his management, and The Times bespeaks still greater success for him. The drug store will be known as "Anderson's Pharmacy."
