

old officers and directors were re-elected. The business of the past year was gone over and considered very satisfactory. The prospects for a successful season the coming year is exceedingly bright. A dividend of 10 per cent was declared. Geo. Bowe will be retained as the company's agent.