

Two transients, known as "Scotty" and "Kentucky," who have been spending some time here this fall, working off and on at the meat market for W. F. Goodwall, were arrested at McHenry last Thursday night by Sheriff Lee.— The former was arrested for taking clothes from Goodwall's home, having access to the house since Goodwall's confinement in the county jail. He was taken to Cooperstown but was released the next day, Goodwall preferring not to make a complaint. "Kentucky" was taken along as far as Binford, for good measure, and was given a night's lodging in the lockup. He was released Friday morning, with an ultimatum to git, vamoose—and he complied instanter. Binford has no room for that class of gentry and the sooner that becomes known to them the better it will be for them.

---