

The opera house annex is being remodeled and fixed up this week preparatory to being used as a pool hall, bowling alley and soft drink establishment. It is surely going to be a neat and attractive place when it is completed.

Next Sunday on the local grounds