

The opening of the Opera Club Room last Saturday was marked by unusual activity in the bowling and pool games, and every evening since this place has been a rendezvous for those who enjoy those popular pastimes. No town in the state, not excepting Fargo or Grand Forks, can boast of a better resort of this character than Binford has—it's the best that money can buy. The boys are practicing up and several bowling contests will be put on this winter. Here's a tip to Cooper—get busy and we'll take you on for a few after corn huskin' time.
