

The entire stock of merchandise is being moved from the Ringlee store at Sutton to their old quarters here this week. The interior and exterior of the store building has been overhauled and freshened with a new coat of paint, and now presents an inviting appearance. The firm will be ready to serve customers by the first of September.