

A cement sidewalk is being laid from the First National bank to the West hotel. This particular spot has been without a walk since the fire and pedestrians who use that side have been compelled to either take the street, or the other side, so to them it will fill a long felt want. F. D. Cannon has the contract.

Lundahl & Nelsons railroad