

Hannaford Enterprise: Ray West, our handsome tailor, returned from Binford and is busy as can be transforming our citizens' old clothing into "glad rags" for wear on Sundays and gala occasions. Ray always wears a smile that won't come off, and no matter how busy he may be, he is always humming that good old refrain, "Who Threw the Overalls in Mrs. Murphy's Chowder!"