

S. Westman, the tailor, has a new ad in this weeks Times. Mr. Westman recently opened a tailor shop in the central office, and is being flooded with work. He is an experienced tailor, having learned the trade in Sweden, and worked in some of the best shops in this country. A tailor shop has been needed in Binford for a long time, and The Times is pleased to note that Mr. Westman is meeting with success.