

law, deceased.

Secretary Smogard of the Commercial club has been interviewing the business men in regards to a farmers' institute to be held some time in February, and has received sufficient assurances of financial support. The exact date will be announced later.