

cation ceremonies.

By an order of the head officials of the I. O. O. F. lodge the camp has been moved from Cooperstown to Binford. Naturally the members of the local lodge are elated over this recognition from the men higher up in their lodge. The local lodge of Odd Fellows is one of the strongest in the state and with the camp moved here it means an additional degree can be put on here which makes the lodge a still stronger one.

A good soaking rain fell Tuesday