

An epidemic of measles has seized Binford and at this writing about twenty children are afflicted. Practically all of the cases are in mild form. Those who have the disease are Julia, Alice and Helen Alm, Alton Dahlin, Kathryn Norman, Rueben and Walter Arneson, Alvin Shaw, Myrtle Hanstad, Robert Carrol, Harold and Verna Wilson, Irene Pritz, Howard and Edna Lewis, Olaf and George Standal, Carl Norstrum and Gladys Reid. All the children are quarantined but not adults.