

CHURCH BAZAAR FOR NEXT WEEK

Ladies' Aid Society Will Hold
Sale and Supper in Opera
House Wednesday Eve.

The ladies' aid society of the Norwegian Lutheran church will hold their annual sale and supper at the opera house next Wednesday evening—instead of Thursday evening, as was announced in last week's paper.

Everyone is invited to be present. The ladies have looked forward to this bazaar with a great deal of anticipation, and have been kept pretty busy getting things in readiness, so there is not the slightest doubt but what a choice lot of articles will be put up for sale. That, however, is not the only important part. The inner man will also be looked after. You will find set before you without any long wait, a tempting array of the delectable things to eat that will so thoroughly satisfy you, that unless you are a grouch, you cannot help but loosen up your purse and buy a few of the other good things that will be auctioned off.

The ladies want you all there. If necessary, to get up an appetite, cut out the other meals during the day and get your fill in the evening—there will be plenty for all—and then some. Besides, it's for a good cause.
