

---

"Our Village Postmaster" played to a large and appreciative audience in the local opera house Tuesday evening. The company was handicapped to some extent by not having all of their stage scenery, which had to be shipped to Steele earlier in the day to enable them to put the play on there the next evening, but the different characters played their respective parts well and received a lot of applause. Mr. Brown was especially good in performing the different dance steps between acts.

The Times is in a... week