

The dance given at the local-opera house last Friday night was very well attended, the fine weather and good roads permitting quite a number to come in. The music furnished by the Binford orchestra was all popular, up-to-date stuff and well played.