

The patrons along rural route number three, running north of town, are advised to get their mail boxes up by the first of September, the first day of the service. No mail will be distributed along the route to those who have no mail boxes up.