

A couple of prairie fires were raging near town Monday, which reminds us that it's time to plow those firebreaks. The one northeast of town, near Rey Swenson's farm, was large enough to cause several town people to go out and fight it.

For more news and information, visit our website at www.fox4.com