

Monday's passenger train carried an extra coach with Supt. F. R. Bartles and the company's train master and road master, who were making a tour of inspection along this branch. Supt. Bartles was appointed to his position the first of the year, and this was his first trip over his division.