

The work of fitting up an extra room in the school house has been completed, and the contract accepted by the board. A new feature this year will be the addition of the course of studies of the first year high school.

Mrs. E. Lee, who has been