

The pupils and teachers of the advanced grades of the Binford school gave a Christmas tree and program in the Maurer hotel last Thursday evening. Many gifts were exchanged and a good time enjoyed by all present. On Friday afternoon the primary room enjoyed a tree and rendered a program befitting the occasion. Many visitors were present at the exercises, which marked the close of school for two weeks during the holidays.