

geistad.

School was closed on Monday, on account of an epidemic of measles, which has affected about twenty of the pupils of the primary department. It is expected the work can be resumed again in two weeks.