

School Notes.

Robert Cowen, who has been attending school in Cooperstown, entered the eighth grade on Monday.

Lydia Halling returned to school Wednesday after several days absence on account of illness.

County examinations are being given in all grades this week.

Clarence Brill was absent Friday, on account of illness.

Miss Betts returned to her work Monday, having returned from her home in Litchfield, Minn., where she was called by the death of her father.

Joseph Myron is absent from school this week.

Miss Ruth Olson returned to her home in Hannaford on Saturday. Miss Olson taught in Room II during the absence of Miss Betts.

Esther Halling is absent from the eighth grade, on account of an attack of tonsilitis.

A farewell picnic was held Monday afternoon at the ball grounds in honor of Floyd and Elmer Wilson, who are soon to leave for Canada. The boys were presented with watches by the pupils and teachers.

Norma Simons visited in Room III on Tuesday afternoon.

Evelyn Alfson was absent Tuesday forenoon on account of illness.

Mrs. Jos. Buchheit and Mrs. J. R. Truscott called at the building Friday.