

School Notes.

Worthy visited in the inter-grades on Monday afternoon. The fourth grade has begun the study of the poem "The Sparrows" and the fifth grade the poem "Little Gottlieb."

Evelyn Rorvig visited in the Primary room Wednesday afternoon.

Earnest and Richard Schoondyke were visitors on Monday.

The debate held in the grammar department last Wednesday was decided in favor of the negative side.

Mesdames Truscott, Buchheit, Lewis, Greenland, Pritz, West, Evers, Bowe, and Knapp, and Mr. Oscar Greenland took in the debate Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Inga Canton of Watson, Minnesota, was a school visitor Wednesday afternoon.

Blanch Greenland has been absent this week, owing to injury she sustained by falling and striking the back of her head. For a few days following the accident she suffered excruciating pains in the head, but is recovering and will return to school after the holiday vacation. The teachers and pupils offer their sympathy and sincerely hope for her a speedy and complete recovery.

Phyllis Peterson was on the absent list Monday.

Evelyn Rorvig was a visitor in the primary room Friday.
