Announcement.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for Judge of the Fifth Judicial District, State of North Dakota, at the primaries, and respectfully solicit the support of all persons who believe me competent for and worthy of the place.

Lee Combs.

Notice of Candidacy.

I am a candidate for delegate to the democratic national convention to be held in Baltimore on June 25th next, and solicit the votes of the democrats of this state for such position.

If elected I shall endeavor to secure the nomination for presidency of the man indicated by your votes at the March primary as your choice for that office—presumably Governor Burke. If this be shown by your votes and his nomination prove impossible I shall in that event support Hon. Woodrow Wilson as long as his nomination seems possible, such action, being, in my opinion, in accord with the wishes of the democratic voters of this state.

Whether elected as delegate or not, I shall, as I always have, support the nominee of the convention for the presidency.

I fully agree with the expressed views of the democratic editors that candidates for delegate should make no patronage pledges of any kind.

—Willis A. Joy.
