

School Notes.

Josephine Tningelstad has been absent from Room III this week, being out of town.

Mrs. J. R. Truscott has been teaching the primary room this week. Miss Lowe has been absent on account of illness for a number of days.

Alice and Julia Alm have been absent from school the past few days on account of illness.

The English class is now reading Mathew Arnold's poems.

Joseph Myron was absent from school Tuesday.

Frank Keffler went to Fargo last Thursday to look in on the grain growers.

New and complete line of "Viking Brand" boys' and youths' suits and overcoats, at Buchheit-Bakken Co.—Adv.

For Sale or Trade—Model 41, five passenger Rambler touring car, in good running order, with good tires. Model F, five passenger Buick touring car. Has been overhauled, repainted and fixed up in good shape.—Binford Auto Garage.

Fire destroyed the Howden & Best store at McHenry last Friday evening. The entire building and stock were consumed, and, we understand the loss will be large, as no great amount of insurance was held. The origin of the fire is not known.

J. E. Olmstead and family of Maple Creek, Sask., were visiting with the Gorthy and Hemerlin families this week. They left Tuesday for Cooperstown, and from there will go to the home of Wm. Howden for a visit, before returning to their home at Maple Creek.