

School Notes.

Josephine Thingelstad returned to school Wednesday, having been out of town for a week.

Susie Shaw, Agnes Dahlin, and Lydia Halling were out of school on account of illness.

Room III enjoyed a sleighride party Thursday evening of last week, taking in the Halling and Simons names.

Mrs. Truscott and son, Donald, were visitors on Tuesday.

Nellie Pritz returned to school on Monday after being absent several days on account of illness.

The English class begins today Addison's "Sir Roger De Coverly Papers."

Joseph Myron was absent from school Wednesday morning.

Palmer Rorvig and Edna Lewis are on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Arneson and Miss Gjelhaug were guests in the primary room on Tuesday afternoon.

Walter Arneson visited school on Monday afternoon.

Robert Carroll returned to school Wednesday afternoon.

The second grade has completed the study of Cyr's second reader and are now studying Baldwin's text book.

Miss Lowe returned Monday to her work in the primary room after an absence enforced by a severe case of tonsillitis.