

School Notes.

Josephine Thinglestad was absent from school the first of the week on account of sickness at home.

The intermediate grade received a letter from their former school-mate, Edna Sorvik, who is now attending school at Lake Park, Minn.

Esther Halling was absent from school on Monday on account of illness.

Joseph Myron returned to school Monday.

Maynard Tweed re-entered school on Monday.

For securing the highest standing in their monthly examinations, Inez Greenland won the honor seat in the fifth grade and Lillian Jackson that of the fourth grade.

Mrs. West called at the building last week.

The eighth grade grammar class is studying Robt. Louis Stevenson's "The Little Land" this month.

Floyd Wilson was on the sick list Monday and Tuesday.

The class in Commercial Arithmetic is studying cross multiplication this week.

Phyllis Peterson was a guest in the primary room Friday afternoon.

Marion Gorthy was absent Monday a. m.

Donald Truscott visited the primary room Monday afternoon.

Katherine Norman, John Ramsfield, Gotfred Gilbertson, Robert Truscott, Florence and Myrtle Knapp and Alton Cannon returned to school this week.

Mr. Emil Ringlee visited in the different rooms on Friday.

Rev. R. T. Fulton, Superintendent of Institutes of the North Dakota Sunday School Association of Fargo, called at school on Friday morning. Mr. Fulton gave an inspiring talk to the children. He explained the subject of Bible study, and the syllabus adopted by the High School board of North Dakota. Every high school student who passes an examination in this subject receives a half-credit on his high school course. Rev. Fulton also sang for the children in a very pleasing manner.