

School Notes.

Attendance has been splendid this week. It is the beginning of a new month.

Ida Goplin is improving rapidly and we hope she may be with us again ere long.

Joseph Myron is under quarantine. His little nephew has a light attack of scarlet fever.

Mrs. Truscott called on the primary room Thursday of last week.

Annie Hegland is suffering with a bad cold.

We are grateful to the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs for a beautiful bouquet of carnations which brightened our rooms Tuesday and Wednesday.

Fred Smith was a visitor in room 3 Tuesday.

Who got the flag this month? Room 2 did! Just listen to this.

Who are we? We are the
P--E--O--P--L--E!

Binford, room 2! Ha! ha! ha!

We won the flag, so rah! rah! rah!

The Honor roll for the past month includes Edna Sorvik, Leo Dahlin, Julia Alm, Joseph Myron Harwell West, and Ivar Knapp.

We are (like Roosevelt) in the ring for the flag this month. Here's hoping!

Pupils neither tardy nor absent during the sixth month were:

Room 1--Nellie Shaw, Susie Shaw, Agnes Dahlin, Alton Dahlin, Florence Greenland, Howard Lewis, Catherine Norman and Millie Pratt. Enrollment, twenty-five.

Room 2--Mildred Davidson, Julia Alm, Leo Dahlin, Inez Greenland, May Brill and Olaf Swenson. Enrollment, thirteen.

Room 3--Ruth Dahlin, Olge Dahlin, Annie Hegland, Agnes Knapp, Lillian Swenson, and Harold Swenson. Enrollment, eleven.

Those awarded certificates for six months' perfect attendance are fifteen in number:

Nellie Shaw, Susie Shaw, Howard Lewis, Florence Greenland, Alton Dahlin, Agnes Dahlin, Inez Greenland, May Brill, Olaf Swenson, Julia Alm, Leo Dahlin, Annie Hegland, Agnes Knapp, Lillian Swenson and Ruth Dahlin.
