

School Notes.

The primary grades are having a review this week.

Misses Edith Jasmer and Beth Goldsmith were callers on Wednesday afternoon.

The seventh grade is committing the one hundred twenty-first psalm, and the sixth grade is memorizing "My Native Land."

The third grade pupils have been studying the poem, "Seven Times One," by Jean Ingelow.

A most delightful surprise party was held in Room II on Monday afternoon, the occasion being Miss Sheffield's birthday. The best thing about it was, that it was a "really, truly" surprise, and none of your make-believes. A dainty and delicious lunch was served, Mrs. Greenland and Mrs. Truscott appearing in due time with the coffee. After the birthday cake had been properly cut and passed, Mildred Davidson, in behalf of the school, presented Miss Sheffield with a beautiful silver jewel-case. In it she may keep her jewels, not the least of which will be the memory of that pleasant afternoon.

Wednesday, May 29th, is the last day of school. If the weather is suitable the school is planning on spending the day at the lake, and all parents and friends are invited to accompany us. Meet at the school house at 10:30 A. M. A number of friends of the school have signified their willingness to use their automobiles on this occasion and we hope to be able to accommodate all in this way.
