

School Notes.

Norma and Della Simons were visitors in the Grammar department Thursday afternoon.

The ninth grade is now studying, "The Great Stone Face" written by Nathaniel Hawthorne.

Mrs. J. R. Truscott substituted in the primary department Monday and Tuesday during the absence of Miss Lowe, who was out of town for a few days.

Horace Ford entered school Monday from District No. 2.

Lillie Amundson was a visitor on Thursday afternoon.

Those on the absent list in the fourth grade the past week are Lillian Olsgard and John Ramsjfeld and in the fifth grade Agnes Dahlin.

The third grade is memorizing "The Corn Song" by John G Whittier.

The intermediate grades have chosen sides and once a week have a rapid drill in the multiplication tables. The leaders are Marion Gorthy and Olaf Standal.
