

School Notes.

County Superintendent I. A. Kampen visited the Binford school Thursday.

Clarence Simons was a visitor in the grammar room Thursday afternoon.

The seventh grade is memorizing "Abraham Davenport" and the sixth grade "The Cloud."

The seventh and ninth grades are arranging for a debate to be held on the afternoon of Wednesday, Nov. 26. The question to be debated is, Resolved that laws ought to be enacted restricting foreign immigration. The debaters on the affirmative side are Joseph Myron, Alma Ford, and Ruth Dahlin and those on the negative side are Hans Amlie, Harwell West and Esther Halling.

The fifth grade has completed the study of the poem, "The Landing of the Pilgrims" by Hemans.

Mrs. Evers and Mrs. Reid were guests in the Primary room on Friday afternoon.

Myrtle and Jessie Knapp enrolled in the First Grade Monday.

Mildred Alfson is on the absent list this week.

Esther Gorthy, Evelyn Rorvig and Richard Schoondyke visited the Primary room Friday.

Robert Carrol returned to school Monday after an absence of several days.

The second grade has memorized "The Birds Farewell" and are now studying the poem "November" by Alice Cary.

The Primary pupils are busy making Thanksgiving decorations.

Mrs. J. R. Truscott and sons Donald and Robert were visitors on Friday.

Mrs. D.A. Goplin called at building Wednesday afternoon.