

School Notes.

---

Where is Salton Sea?

The fourth graders do not trust the prophecies of weather man. They are making an illustrated calendar.

Lilly and Thinka Olsgard returned to school Monday after several days absence.

An accident which proved to be more amusing than serious occurred Tuesday when the long faithful organ-stool collapsed. Josephine still survives.

Miss Sheffield spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Cooperstown returning to Binford Sunday afternoon via automobile.

The certificates for perfect attendance have arrived and have been distributed to those who deserved them. They are very neat and well worth trying for. According to the present indications there will be more earned this month than there were last.

We have several additions to our plants and wish to thank all who so kindly contributed.

The fifth grade has been making a booklet, illustrating Sheridan's Ride, which they have been studying.

---