

School Notes.

This week is the end of the first month of school and the time for examinations.

Mrs. Pritz and daughter, and Mrs. Lewis were visitors Friday afternoon.

The plants and pictures, presented by the children of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades, have added greatly to the arrearance of the room.

Palmer Rorvig presented the primary room with three pretty pictures.

Florence and Myrtle Knapp enrolled in Miss Lowe's room on Tuesday.

While playing with friends Sunday evening, Harwell West met with an accident which has some what disabled him.

Andor Peterson was a visitor on Tuesday.

Clarence Brill has returned from Montana, and was a visitor on Tuesday.

Three of our school girls won in the guessing contest at the drug store this week. The first prize of one dollar was won by Neilie Shaw, the second, fifty cents, by Nellie Pritz, and third by Susie Shaw.

Rueben Arneson was a Coopers-town visitor Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Evers added four very pretty plants to the collection in the primary room.

We are all pleased to know of the improvement in Agnes Knapp's health. Both teachers and pupils miss her very much.

The first program of the Knowledge Seekers on last Friday p. m. was very well-given by two numbers from each room. The next program will be on Friday, Oct. 11 and will be given by the pupils in Miss Persons' room.
