

School Notes.

Those neither absent nor tardy in the grammar department during the month of September are Alma Ford, Inez Greenland, Iver Knapp, Olaf Swenson and Harwell West.

The ninth grade are reading "Sharp Eyes," by John Burroughs.

Alma Ford spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents in District 19.

Having completed the study of "Horatius at the Bridge," the ninth grade wrote compositions entitled "The Bravery of Horatius," last week.

The fourth grade has begun learning the "Dutch Lullaby," by Eugene Field.

Those neither absent nor tardy in the intermediate grades during the month of September are: Alton Dahlin, Agnes Dahlin, Leonard Gorthy, Marion Gorthy, Raymond Gorthy, Florence Greenland, Johnny Hagberg, Manfred Knapp, Howard Lewis, Carl Norstrum, Irene Pritz, John Ramsfeld, George Standal, Olaf Standal, Susie Shaw and Nellie Shaw.

Mrs. Gorthy visited the primary room on Friday afternoon.

The second grade is memorizing "My Shadow," by Robert Louis Stevenson.

Orin Olagard was absent Friday.

Mrs. Peterson was a guest in the primary room on Tuesday afternoon.

Evelyn Alfson enrolled in the second grade on Monday.

Clarence Bakken visited in the primary room on Wednesday afternoon.

There were twenty-four pupils neither absent nor tardy in the primary room during the month of September, viz: Laura and Arthur Amundson, Walter and Rueben Arneson, Mildred Alfson, Helen Alm,