

School Notes.

School opened Tuesday, Sept. 2, with an enrollment of seventy-eight pupils.

Julia Alm, Esther Halling and Hans Amlie were absent from school a few days last week.

Several volumes of fiction have been added to the school library.

Hans Amlie and Alma Ford have entered the grammar department from District No. 2.

Mrs. Frank Bowe and sister, Miss Reyma Waite, visited school Friday afternoon.

Many improvements have been made this year. Among them are the new single seats for the grammar department and the much needed cement walk in and around the school grounds.

Mrs. Henry Alfson and Mrs. C. E. Peterson were guests in the primary room last week.

Mrs. O. G. Arneson visited in the primary room on Tuesday forenoon.

Miss Fern Davidson of Sutton visited school last week.

Esther Gilbertson was absent from school Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Bertha Erickson was a visitor Tuesday forenoon.

There are twenty-two pupils enrolled in the beginners class, viz: Arthur Standal, Evelyn, Laura and Arthur Amundson, Gladys Hanstad, Walter Arneson, Robert and Lydia King, Leonard Dahlin, Palmer Rorvig, Andor Peterson, Christ Hagberg, Olof Norman, Arnold Goplen, Orin Olsgard, Peter Ramsfjeld, Esther Gilbertson, Phyllis Peterson, Mildred Alfson, Leroy Alfson, Robert Carrol and Sidney Bakke.

Christian Behm was absent from school Monday on account of a sore foot.

The fourth grade is learning the poem, "The Barefoot Boy."