

With the beginning of another school year so near at hand, the necessity of having sidewalks leading to the school building is brought forcibly to mind. In the spring of the year, the children can be seen wading thru mud and slush, knee deep in some places. It therefore becomes a question of safety to public health, and compared with the cost, the laying of the walk is cheap at any price. Now is the the time to do the work before it freezes up.

E. J. Blunt was found dead