

day.

H. J. Olson, manager of the Griggs County Telephone company, and Elmer Anderson, the company's line man, were here a part of the week repairing the telephone system. The line to Mose will be extended so as to supply a number of the farmers north of that town with telephone service.