

The Christmas tree exercises at the United Lutheran church last Saturday evening was very well attended. The songs by the choir, the solo by L. P. Larson, the duet by Hildur and Ejnar Gunderson, and the various songs and recitations by the children were well rendered, and much credit is due to those who had the exercises in charge.

The business concerns in Binford