

A Wilson-Marshall club was organized at the I. O. O. F. hall last Saturday evening. Jos. Buchheit was elected president, P. P. Idsvoog, vice president, Theo. Smogard, secretary, and Oscar Greenland, treasurer. A committee was appointed to draft the by-laws and another committee to solicit members. About 25 members are signed up. The meeting was attended by several from Cooperstown. Benjamin Tufte spoke for a few minutes and pointed out how a great deal of good can be accomplished through organizations. Wm. McCulloch was the next speaker, and he dealt principally on the candidates for president, and the conditions existing at the present time--and those in the past. He advanced some good, logical arguments. Although there were not as many present as was desired, a great deal of good will come as a result of the organization.
