

||The auction sale at Wm. Luchts Tuesday was well attended and all the property advertised was disposed of and brought a good price. F. C. Boeckman was the auctioneer, and considering that this was his first sale since coming to North Dakota, he did remarkably well. Fred has the gab all right and that goes a long ways.
