

I. I. Braaten and wife returned last Wednesday from Flaxton, where they went to look over their new home town. Mr. Braaten has accepted the cashiership of a bank in that town and will move there next week. Mr. Braaten's decision to leave was quite unexpected and was a big surprise to his friends here. The Times is sorry that the Braatens have decided to leave Binrord. They are an estimable couple and have made many friends during their residence here. As a member of the Hammer-Thingelstad Co. Mr. Braaten has done much to promote the interests of his employers and associates by his courteous treatment to customers, and the prompt and faithful performance of his duties. During the past year he has been the secretary and treasurer of that firm, and at the last election was made village clerk. The Times heartily recommends Mr. and Mrs. Braaten to the people of Flaxton, and hopes for them an abundance of happiness and prosperity in their new home.
