

TWO ALLEGED PIGGERS

Mrs. Brown, An Old Offender, In Trouble Again.

Aneta Panorama: Yesterday afternoon there was considerable excitement in certain circles when G. A. Brooks, F. S. Carter and Minnie Brown were arrested.

Brooks pleaded guilty to selling intoxicating beverages, but Carter would not plead guilty and was given a chance to raise a bond of $500. The Brown woman refused to plead guilty to a charge of immoral conduct and her case was set for 10 o'clock this morning.

State's Attorney Skulasen and Sheriff Johnson did not get here until noon so the case was not called until 2 p. m. Carter was called and placed on the stand and facing him on the table stood better than 3 gallons of bad whiskey which had been found in his place of business in the Galde building. He would not employ an attorney but tried to conduct his own case in which he failed miserably. He called his friend Brooks as a witness and the latter made the case worse.

Magistrate Sperry set the bond at $300 but the defendant failed to raise it and so Brooks and Carter were remanded to jail at Grand Forks to await the January term of court. Miss Minnie Brown was a sure miss—she turned up missing when her case was called. P. S.—There will be no posse sent out to find her.
