

will soon move onto it.

J. W. Bruns returned last week from Devils Lake where he had been in attendance at the hardware dealers' convention. He wanted to introduce his patent hay rack irons to the gathering and met with good success, selling a number of sets. Mr. Bruns says he never got into a nicer gathering in his life and had a real fine time. —Courier.

For the next three weeks we have had