

J. H. Buskirk of Finley, was here Sunday looking over the town with a view of locating here. He is a barber, and was favorably impressed with the barber shop and our little city. Mr. Buskirk is a fine appearing gentleman and a pleasant fellow to meet. If he decides to become one of us a warm hand of welcome will be extended to him and his family.