

few days.

Mrs. F. D. Cannon had the forefinger of her left hand amputated Tuesday. Blood poison had set in. The operation was performed at Cooperstown.

It was understood that John Thayer