

Joe Christianson, who has been employed at the barber shop, has purchased the shop and took possession last Friday.