

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Last Friday while C. A. Cross and Charley Rhodes were autoing to Frettim, they broke an axle, causing them to be tied up on the prairie. C. A. sent in word to R. D. Thompson to come out and get them. Saturday morning J. H. Daniels brought in the remains, and judging from appearances they must have been going some when they brought up with the difficulty. C. A. will give you the particulars.—Dawson Press.
