

C, A Cross, who was in the grain business here a few years ago, but who has since been cashier of the First State Bank at Dawson, has resigned his position with that institution.